Dear RailML-colleagues, may I remember that the next RailML-meeting will be held on Thursday, 20.09.2007 in Dresden, invited by Fraunhofer-Institut fuer Verkehrs-und Infrastruktursysteme (IVI, more information: http://www.ivi.fhg.de).

We will open the session at 9.30 o' clock in the main conference room of Fraunhofer-IVI in 01069 Dresden, Zeunerstrasse 38 (bus 72, 76, 360 to "Mommsenstrasse" or 15 min. walk from Dresden main station). You will find a map for travelling to Fraunhofer-IVI via http://www.railml.org/de/public/12thmeetingdresden.html. For our colleagues arriving by night-train from Zurich or anywhere in the early morning there will be a coffee reception at Fraunhofer-IVI from 8.30 o'clock.

The conference language will be German and English (if required) and participation is free (please advise via webform at www.railml.org / http://www.railml.org/de/public/12thmeetingform.html, latest 18.09.2006 evening).

You are invited to present your developments for, from or with RailML, please contact me via coordination@railml.org.

Best regards,
