Dear RailML-colleagues,

may I remember that the next RailML-meeting will be held in one month:
We will meet on Thursday, 06.03.2008 in Bern (Switzerland), invited by BLS and Qnamic (for more information please see: www.qnamic.ch and www.bls.ch).

We will open the session at 9.30 o'clock in the main conference room of BLS AG in 3001 Bern/Berne, Genfergasse 11 (5 min. walk from Bern HB / main station). You will find a map for travelling to BLS AG via <http://www.railml.org/en/public/13thmeetingbern.html> (in Deutsch: <http://www.railml.org/de/public/13thmeetingbern.html>). The meeting is scheduled up to 15.30 o'clock; after the meeting BLS will offer a guided tour through the crew and engine dispatching centre of BLS (registration during the meeting).

You are invited to present your developments for, from or with RailML, please contact Dr. Huerlimann or me via coordination@railml.org for building the schedule.

The conference language will be German and English (if required) and participation is free (please advise via web form at www.railml.org / <http://www.railml.org/de/public/13thmeetingform.html>, latest 04.03.2008 evening).

Best regards,
