Dear RailML-colleagues,

May I invite you for the 18. RailML-conference in a few weeks: We will meet on Tuesday, 19.10.2010 in Berlin (Germany), invited by IVU AG.

You are invited to present your developments for, from or with RailML, please contact Dr. Huerlimann or me via coordination@railml.org for building the schedule, at least three days in advance. Presentations slides must be given in as a PDF or PPT up to the 18.10.2010, 16.00 o'clock latest.

The participation is free, but registration is compulsory. Please use the web form at http://www.railml.org/2010/index.php/anmeldung.html, latest 16.10.2010.

Best regards,

Vasco Paul Kolmorgen
